

Environmental Awareness Programs

1. Workshop on Source apportionment: A virtual workshop on Source apportionment Study conducted in Jharia Coalfield by BCCL was organized in 2021 in collaboration with NEERI, Nagpur. The workshop was attended by the officials from CIL and its all Subsidiaries. In the workshop, the findings of the reports were discussed.
2. Webinar on Restoration of Degraded land: A webinar in collaboration with FRI, Dehradun was organized by BCCL on 29.10.2021. The workshop was attended by the officials from CIL and its all Subsidiaries. The Scientists from FRI, Dehradun presented on the various methodologies for the reclamation of the degraded mined out Areas. Various success stories of the reclamation at the coal mines were also presented in the Webinar.
3. Brainstorming session on utilization of Fly ash in BCCL: A brainstorming session on Utilization of Fly Ash in Coal Mines" in light of MoEFCC notification issued vide S.O. 5481 (E) dated 31/12/2021 on ash utilization from coal or lignite thermal power plants (in OB dumps and in Backfilling with provisions of Compensation was organized for the officials of the BCCL on 09.03.2022 for deliberation and future course of action w.r.t fly ash utilization in BCCL.
4. Environmental Compliance by Health Care facilities in BCCL: For Awareness and proper Guidance to operator of Healthcare facilities of BCCL and keeping in view the importance of Environmental Compliance by Health Care facilities in BCCL, a programme was organized a programme on 30th March 2022 in HRD, Kalyan Bhawan, BCCL.