We further agree and confirm that all consents, reports, certificates or other deliverables issued by us prior to such cessation (collectively, the 'Existing Certificates') may continue to be used, relied upon, circulated, or filed by the Company, its directors, officers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, and their respective assigns, for the purposes of the IPO or any related regulatory or statutory filings, without requiring any further no-objection certificate ('NOC') or consent from me/us. Such continued use of the Existing Certificates shall have the same validity, force, and effect as if an express NOC had been provided by us.

Such continued use shall not reduce, release, extinguish, or limit my/our responsibility or liability in any manner with respect to the Existing Certificates or work undertaken during our tenure as practicing company secretary.

The Company shall be entitled, at its sole discretion and volition, to enter into any arrangement letter, comfort letter, certification engagement, diligence support, or any similar engagement with any other firm of company secretaries for the purposes of the IPO or otherwise.

We further confirm that nothing in this letter shall be construed as limiting or restricting any rights, remedies, or recourse available to the Company or its merchant bankers under law, contract, or regulatory provisions, including the ICDR Regulations.

We agree and undertake that, notwithstanding my/our cessation as the Statutory Auditor of the Company, we shall fully cooperate with, and provide all information, explanations, documents, workings, audit files, papers, and clarifications as may be reasonably required by any regulatory, statutory, governmental, investigative, judicial, or quasi-judicial authority, including but not limited to SEBI, ROC/RD, MCA, stock exchanges, Income Tax authorities, Enforcement Directorate, or any other authority, in connection with the Company, its proposed initial public offer ('IPO'), or any certifications, statements, or reports issued by us.

Such cooperation shall be prompt, complete, accurate, and provided at our own cost, and shall continue for as long as such information is required by any authority or as long as any proceedings, inquiries, investigations, or regulatory reviews remain pending.

We agree that failure to provide such cooperation shall constitute a breach of my/our obligations and may give rise to consequences, claims, actions, and remedies available to the Company under law.

We acknowledge that all information, documents, data, secretarial records, worksheets, analysis, internal controls information, operational details, and any other information of the Company or its group (whether oral, written, electronic, or otherwise), obtained or accessed by me/us during the course of my/our engagement ('Confidential Information'), shall remain strictly confidential at all times.

We shall not, at any time after cessation—directly or indirectly—disclose, publish, transmit, reproduce, disseminate, or use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than as expressly permitted in writing by the Company or as required strictly under applicable law.

We further undertake not to share, communicate, or disclose any Confidential Information to any third party, including any other auditor, consultant, competitor, or regulator, except where expressly mandated under law and with prior written intimation to the Company.

These confidentiality obligations shall survive our cessation as statutory auditor and shall continue indefinitely, unless the Confidential Information lawfully enters the public domain without breach of this clause.

We confirm that the information in this certificate is true, correct, accurate and adequate, and not misleading in any material respect and do not omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements herein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.
